CRIME TREND ALERT

We've found that retail and financial institution crime dips in September and October before ratcheting back up by approximately 10% to 30%, in some cases upwards of 60%, in November and December.

STORY OF THE MONTH

Bank – Edgewater, CO – September 20

A suspect entered a bank and passed a note to an employee demanding money. The employee handed the suspect $4,500. Fleeing in a getaway car, police responded rapidly thanks to the Cash Tracker hidden in the stolen cash. The suspect led officers on an extended pursuit across several jurisdictions. Police, aided by multiple agencies, tracked the suspect's location and eventually apprehended them miles away, retrieving the stolen cash.

Beauty Store – Gainesville, FL – September 9

Three suspects stole thousands in merchandise from a Beauty Store, unknowingly taking an ORC Tracker with them. The tracker activated, allowing law enforcement to monitor the suspects as they fled south. The suspects exited the turnpike and were tracked to an apartment complex. Local authorities quickly coordinated, surrounding the area and apprehending two suspects without incident, securing a full recovery of the merchandise. This crew was linked to prior ORC cases, and local law enforcement praised 3Si's tracking technology for enabling the successful arrests.

Pharmacy – San Leandro, CA – September 12

A robbery took place at a San Leandro pharmacy, where one suspect made off with stolen goods that included a hidden Cash Tracker. Shortly after the theft, the tracker activated, alerting 3Si's Tracking Support Center and local PD. The device transmitted its location as it moved away from the store, eventually becoming stationary nearby. Using the real-time data from 3Si, police responded swiftly, locating the suspect. The suspect was apprehended without incident, and a full recovery of the stolen items was made, bringing the case to a successful close.
