3Si and Flock Safety Partner to Deliver Integrated Intelligence for Law Enforcement Crime Response

Malvern, PA & Atlanta, GA – September 10, 2025 – 3Si Security Systems, a leader in innovative security technologies that support law enforcement in crime response, and Flock Safety, the leading safety technology platform, have announced a strategic technology integration.

This new partnership directly integrates 3Si's innovative technology into the FlockOS® platform, streamlining access to live pursuit data and actionable intelligence for public safety agencies. The collaboration reflects both companies' shared mission of empowering law enforcement with cutting-edge tools.

This integration will make real-time intelligence from 3Si's technology visible within the FlockOS platform, giving law enforcement agencies a unified operational picture. This partnership delivers a powerful combination of live-streamed data for crimes-in-progress and license plate recognition (LPR) media, enabling police to respond to crimes with more actionable insights.

"As a frequent user of 3Si tools during my tenure at the NYPD, leveraging the 3Si portal with additional resources like LPR is a game-changer. For this reason, we are thrilled to join forces with Flock Safety to give law enforcement an edge in fighting crime," said Joseph Courtesis, Senior Vice President, Law Enforcement Division, at 3Si. "Our shared mission of delivering critical intelligence to the right people at the right time makes this a natural partnership."

"Flock is committed to driving results for our customers," said Bailey Quintrell, Chief Strategy Officer at Flock Safety. "That commitment includes partnering with industry leaders like 3Si to integrate proven solutions into the FlockOS ecosystem, giving agencies a more streamlined and powerful view of crime scenes as they unfold."

Both 3Si and Flock Safety are committed to supporting law enforcement with forward-thinking, life-saving technologies. This partnership underscores their mutual dedication to safer communities and more efficient crime response.
