3 ARRESTS AND PARTIAL RECOVERY $400

Bank – London, ON – October 17, 2026

Three suspects robbed a bank using a holdup note and fled with cash, including a 3Si GPS Tracker™. The tracker's GPS Intelligence was sent via the DirectToDispatch™ pathway to responding officers, and 3Si's team provided real-time location updates. Officers arrested all three suspects shortly after, then used the tracker's ping feature to locate the device nearby. The cash was recovered and is being held as evidence.

1 ARREST AND FULL RECOVERY $900

Bank – Charlotte, NC– October 27, 2026

After a failed robbery attempt at one bank, a suspect robbed a second bank using a demand note and fled with cash, including a 3Si Cash Tracker™. The tracker's GPS Intelligence was sent via the DirectToDispatch™ pathway to local police, who arrested the suspect a short distance away with the cash. Police confirmed the arrest resulted directly from the 3Si tracker. No one was injured, and the suspect faces bank robbery charges.

Bank – Ottawa, ON – September 15, 2026

A suspect entered an Ottawa bank, waited in line, and approached a teller with a note demanding cash. After receiving $350, the suspect left the branch. GPS information from a 3Si Cash Tracker™ reached local police dispatch through DirectToDispatch™, allowing officers to follow the stolen funds as the suspect traveled. Police located the suspect at another bank, made an arrest, and recovered all of the cash.

Bank – Des Moines, IA – Sept. 28, 2026

A suspect entered a Des Moines bank, demanded cash, and fled on foot with approximately $900. GPS data from a 3Si Cash Tracker™ reached local police dispatch via the DirectToDispatch™ priority pathway, helping officers trace the stolen funds to a nearby building. Police then served a search warrant, arrested the suspect, and recovered all stolen funds. A responding sergeant reported, "This worked perfectly. The tracker even indicated the corner of the room we found him hiding in."

TOP FINANCIAL STORIES

2 ARRESTS AND FULL RECOVERY $98,000

Bank – Columbus, OH – August 4, 2026

A robbery note demanding cash at a bank sent a suspect fleeing with roughly $80 protected with a 3Si Cash Tracker™. As the suspect abandoned a vehicle and blended into pedestrian traffic, DirectToDispatch™ delivered the device's location to local police dispatchers. Officers located and arrested the suspect, who a detective noted had three prior bank robbery convictions for similar offenses.

Credit Union – Mesquite, TX – August 21, 2026

An armed suspect demanded $1,000 at a Mesquite credit union, then proceeded to flee with cash protected with a 3Si Cash Tracker™. DirectToDispatch™ routed the verified location data to local police dispatchers, who coordinated with officers in the field. Following a short pursuit, officers arrested the suspect and recovered the cash and tracker. Officers also recovered two knives from the vehicle, and no injuries occurred.

ATM – Hyattsville, MD – July 31, 2026

Using stolen construction equipment, suspects removed an ATM from its foundation and transported it roughly two miles from a Hyattsville location. A 3Si ATM Tracker™ was activated and delivered verified location data to local police dispatchers through the DirectToDispatch™ pathway. Officers used the intelligence to locate the ATM before the suspects could access the cash cassettes inside. Officers arrested a suspect, and the ATM was fully recovered.

Bank – Denver, CO – July 1, 2026

Authorities in Denver rushed to a local bank after a robbery in progress; a 3Si Cash Tracker™ left the scene along with the stolen currency. The security team verified the event and delivered GPS intelligence to local police dispatchers through the DirectToDispatch™ pathway. Officers used the live location data to locate the suspect shortly after he left the bank. The suspect was arrested, and the $1,800 in stolen currency was fully recovered.
